K. OF P. AGAPE.

A Brilliant Gathering — Eloquence, Edibles and Elegance.

Yonge's hall witnessed a brilliant gathering Wednesday night.

The hall was beautifully decorated with ferns, pot plants and flowers and at intervals the American flag waved its benediction over the scene.

The tables were formed in the shape of the letters K and P and covers were laid for one hundred and fifty.

The mandolin club furnished appropriate music and songs and recitals from the graphophone were also a part of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. Baxter Carn, Justice Waid and Mr. Barker, of Anthony, received the guests as they entered the hall and they were ushered to seats by Mr. Paul Durand.

Mr. Carter Dame was master of the cuisine and he saw that nothing was omitted nor no one overlooked.

Mr. Chambliss was detained at home on account of sickness and in his absence Mr. Geo. W. Martin acted as master of ceremonies and performed these functions most admirably.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the gong sounded and after an impromptu, warm, cordial greeting from the master of ceremonies the guests sat down to the following menu:

Oysters	Celery	Olives
Chicken Salad	Beaten Biscuit
Bon Bons	Salted Almonds
Ice Cream	Cake
Crackers	Cafe Noir	Edam Cheese
	Punch.

During the banquet Hon. Carlos L. Sistrunk spoke, his subject being, "Fraternalism from the Standpoint of the Uninitiated." His speech was short, pithy and replete with anecdotes, all of which were amusing and kept the guests full of laughter. He closed his remarks with an imaginary dream, which was particularly appropriate and well understood, if not by the uninitiated, certainly by the initiated.

The master of ceremonies next called on Hon. Tullius E. Biggs, who responded to the toast, "Fraternalism." Mr. Biggs defined fraternalism and especially as it relates to Pythianism. He caused ripples of laughter and at the conclusion of his remarks was warmly applauded.

"Sororalism," was the "feast" of the occasion and under the witty manipulation of Rev. L. B. Warren created generous and wide-spread mirth from the moment he arose until he had finished. He told the story of "Brother Jasper and his little lamb" in a most pleasing and imitable manner.

On behalf of the master of ceremonies Mr. Warren thanked those present for their attendance and bade them good night while they were yet enjoying the mirth produced by his well told stories.

This banquet was a most enjoyable affair and will be pleasantly remembered by the many persons who were present to enjoy the cordial hospitality of the Ocala Lodge Knights of Pythias.

Rogers—Sims.

Mr. Charles Patterson Rogers and Miss Effie Frances Sims were very quietly married at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. B. Staten in this city Monday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. B. Warren at ten o'clock. Owing to the recent death of the bride's brother the wedding was very quiet, only the family being present. The bride wore a handsome traveling dress. The wedding was to have occurred a few days later but the young people changed their plans and when the wedding was learned of on Tuesday it was a matter of great surprise to their friends.

The bride has been a frequent visitor to Ocala and when a child she lived here with her parents, but for the past few years has lived at Valdosta, Ga. She has a large number of friends in Valdosta and Ocala, who will wish for her a very happy married life.

Mr. Rogers is a prominent young hemp dealer and resides in Lexington Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers left on the early morning train for St. Louis to spend a few days, after which they will be at home at Cheapside, Lexington.

Mrs. Frank Lytle Dead.

It is with much sadness that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Frank H. Lytle of Stanton on Lake Weir, which occurred at her home Monday night at nine o'clock. Mrs. Lytle has been ill for some time and her death was not entirely unexpected.

Mrs. Lytle was well known here and all over Marion county. She was an estimable lady of christian character and her friends will long mourn her death.

W. H. Lipscombe, of Ocala, representing the Singer Manufacturing Company, has rented the store recently vacated by L. J. Burkhim, north side of square, and will remove the offices of the company from Ocala to this city in a few days. Gainesville will gladly welcome this new enterprise and its manager.—Gainesville Sun.

UNCLE DICK MILLER ROBBED.

Old Veteran of Three Wars Loses the Accumulations of a Life Time.

Special Correspondence Ocala Banner.

R. W. Miller, of Martel, an aged man of four score years, lost his dwelling by fire about one year ago, in which he had about $2,000 in gold, about $1,700 of which remained intact, the balance being melted. He had a friend to melt the melted gold into a bar. He also had a sum of Spanish coin. He added to the $1,700 $300 in gold since his house was burned making in American coin about $2,000. He also had a sum of Spanish gold supposed to be worthless.

Mr. Miller built a box dwelling in which he placed his gold in a trunk secured by two locks. He also kept the room in which the trunk was placed securely locked and kept the keys in his pocket. He had a grandson living with him who was going to school. On the morning of Oct. 10, when he awoke he discovered light through a crack, which attracted his attention and upon investigation he found the lower end of a plank had been prized from the sill of the house, the locks prized from the trunk and the $2,000 of American gold was missing, the Spanish coin and bar of gold being left in the trunk. It is evident that the robbery was perpetrated by some person familiar with the kind of money he had and where it was kept. There is no clue as to who committed the robbery. Mr. Miller has the sympathy of his neighbors.

Death of Mr. I. J. Jones.

Mr. David S. Woodrow has received information from London of the death of Mr. Thomas J. Jones, who in the palmy phosphate days was a resident of Ocala, a phosphate operator, and while here formed many acquaintances and made many friends. Since leaving Ocala Mr. Jones had visited many countries and for several years past had been living in South America. He contracted malaria in that country, from which disease he died soon after reaching London a short while ago. His friends here, who remember him so pleasantly, will regret to learn of his death. He was a genial, and a most companionable gentleman.

Keep the Streets Tidy.

Ocala, Fla., Oct. 18, 1904.

Editor Banner: I would like for some merchant of Ocala to tell me why they sweep all the paper, trash and litter from their store out the front door, to blow about the street and give the town a very unkempt appearance, when it would be just as easy to sweep it out of the back door, where it could be put in a box and removed, and not allowed to blow around over the town. If they would do this what a difference it would make in the appearance of the place.

The people of the town should take more pride in the place. Nothing will so quickly impress outsiders as a neat, clean town. And that is what we want to do—impress about 5000 more people with the fact that this is a good place to make their home.

If there is anyone in Ocala who has not pride enough in the town to help keep it clean and push it along, then the city council and police should make him do it. R. B. Campbell.
